Dear Aunt,

I received your parcel today. Thank you very much indeed. You will have received my letter acknowledging your other parcel. I am back at the ambulance now. I am free from the immediate thoughts of bullets and shells.

I am quite well but the weather has taken a colder turn. Of course we feel it after the warm spell. I hope grandfather and Grandmother will remain in good health and enjoy living.

I hope you are all well and that the war will end itself and everyone's worries.

Yours sincerely
A.L. Lloyd.
