Dear Mother,

Just a short letter to tell you I received your letter and Percy's as well. I've had a parcel from grange. Last week I had a photo of Mamie and the Belgian girl. I expect you have had one too.

The weather has gone cooler but I'm alright up to the present.

I'll answer Percy's letter some time later. I hope the war is over before he is eighteen. It has plenty of time to be of course.

I received the paper today. It's getting much smaller now. There was some news in it some time ago, but there's not so much in it now. I haven't heard from Reggie lately. I don't know whether he's moved or not.

Your affectionate son
Lewis.
