EUROPEAN YEAR OF CULTURAL HERITAGE
#EuropeForCulture

Welcome

2018 is the thirteenth year that the Milton Keynes area will have celebrated Heritage Open Days. In 2006 there were 15 events held across MK – this year we have 90 events to showcase our distinctive and world class heritage, arts and culture.

From 6-9 and 13-16 September, there are many unmissable events taking place including activities for children and families. There are opportunities to come along to exhibitions, workshops, open days, craft events and performances. Suitable for all ages. And ALL events will be free.

To find out more about the full event programme visit www.mkheritageopendays.com. You can also follow MKHODs on Twitter using #MKHODs

Living Archive MK

Living Archive MK manages the Heritage Open Days programme on behalf of Milton Keynes Council and Heritage MK.

Discover Milton Keynes

Discover Milton Keynes offers city centre exhibitions, activities, leaflets, and the latest What's On information for Heritage Open Days 2018. It is located in the Central Library on the first floor. www.discovermiltonkeynes.co.uk

Heritage MK is a partnership of five museums and heritage organisations who have joined forces to:

- Raise awareness of the rich history of Milton Keynes within and beyond the 'new' city;
- Win public and commercial support for its conservation, interpretation and development;
- Share resources and expertise in areas such as volunteering, collections handling, governance and marketing; and
- Inspire more people to get involved and help to secure this unique heritage for future generations.
- The partners are Bletchley Park, City Discovery Centre, Cowper and Newton Museum, Living Archive and Milton Keynes Museum.

Sharing Culture MK is a collaborative events programme co-ordinated by MK Council in celebration of our cultural heritage, new town stories and European connections. MK is home to some inspirational stories and Sharing Culture MK is all about telling these stories to the wider world. The programme runs from June to October 2018 and there will be walks, talks, workshops, exhibitions, festivals and much more – engaging people in the Milton Keynes story. Heritage Open Days is one of the flagship events for 2018.

Sharing Culture MK supports the European Commission initiative, European Year of Cultural Heritage (EYCH). The European Commission have developed this initiative to promote cultural diversity, dialogue and social cohesion, whilst also highlighting the economic contribution of cultural heritage.

Weekend 1

Thursday 6 to Sunday 9 September

We've got so much going on in Milton Keynes that this year Heritage Open Days will run over two weekends. Some events are one-offs whilst others will take place on both weekends. Please check the listings for details.

1 Women who made Milton Keynes

Milton Keynes Fawcett Group and Milton Keynes Libraries

Milton Keynes Fawcett Group's exhibition showcases the lives and legacy of 10 pioneering women who were influential in the development of Milton Keynes. The exhibition pays tribute to these early pioneers who helped create the city's identity and its landmarks. These pioneers rarely make it into the histories of Milton Keynes but were crucial in creating many of the places and institutions that give our city its special character.

9 Make Protest Signs with the Centre for Buckinghamshire Studies

Milton Keynes Libraries

2018 marks one hundred years since the passing of the Representation of the People Act 1918, the piece of legislation that enabled many women to vote in general elections for the first time. This right was hard-won: in the years running up to 1918 many women and men participated in suffrage rallies and marches. We would like to invite families to mark this by coming and making protest signs with us at Milton Keynes Central Library. Suitable for ages 8+.

Date & Time: Thursday 6 September 1630-1730

Location: Foyer, Milton Keynes Central Library, 555 Silbury Boulevard, Central Milton Keynes MK9 3HL

22 St Lawrence's Church, Broughton Village Heritage Open Days

Friends of St Lawrence (FOSL)

A time capsule of social, religious and political history. From stunning medieval wall-paintings and chained books from the Reformation to magnificent Victorian stained glass windows. This redundant 14th-century church is one of the hidden gems of Milton Keynes. Now in the care of the Churches Conservation Trust, St Lawrence's is still consecrated and used for occasional services.
