

ALC/D/106

The Times

26th November 1832

Two Noblemen Oppose the London Birmingham Railway

We understand that the directors of the London Birmingham Railway have come to an arrangement with the two nobleman whose opposition led to the failure of the bill last session in the House of Lords, and that this important undertaking is now likely to obtain the sanction of the legislature.