

Act 2 Scene 8

*Worked twenty years here, some of us are leaving
The rest have got a town to believe in
There's no crying, there's no grieving
It always happens that way*

*All change now
Pick up your shovels and dig up the ground
All change now
We're going to make it better today*