

ACT ONE

Scene 7 : A Contractor in Difficulties

OPENING THE LINE TO DENBIGH HALL

*T'would be a stately place you'd think, to call it Denbigh Hall
But until now its truth to say, there was nothing there at all
Its little pub was never used by coaches passing through
No fame it had for beauteous barmaid or for powerful brew...*

The words and music are by Paul Clark.
