

ACT ONE SCENE 9 -

PLACE NAME SONG

*In Shenley all the children put their farthings on the track
The cinders fly as up the line she goes
They look as big as pennies by the time they get them back*

Listen to the whistle as she blows...

Words and Music by Jeremy Cunningham