

ACT 1 Scene 1

...THE MUSIC ABRUPTLY STOPS AS SMITHIE COMES ON WITH STANIFORD. SMITHIE ADDRESSES THE AUDIENCE. HE HAS A NORTHERN ACCENT.

SMITHIE: August 1944, I saw this job advertised at Bletchley, Surveyor and Water Engineer and Public Health Inspector, and I applied for this job.

STANIFORD: All right, Bletchley's a small town, lacking all the facilities that would automatically come with a bigger Bletchley, and if the additional facilities, cultural, educational and so on, if they came with a bigger Bletchley they would inevitably lead to a brighter and better Bletchley...
