

ACT 2 Scene 8

A BARE STAGE. A SLOW REPRISE:...

THROUGH THE SONG, THE RAILWAY AND ROADS ARE LAID OUT AS AT THE VERY START OF THE PLAY. THE MUSIC CONTINUES QUIETLY AS STANIFORD COMES ON.

STANIFORD: I was born in Bletchley in 1913 and I've grown up in the town. I look back on the two little brush factories and the street market and the railway junction, back to where it all began...
