Dear Mother,

I am quite well. I received the paper last week quite safely. I have not heard from Grange lately. I received two parcels from them about the middle of this month. I have not heard from Reggie yet. I will send some postal orders home soon. Some I exchange with fellows for French money. They get the P.O.'s sent out to them.

I am stretcher-bearing with the Ambulance now. We have not had a rest lately.

The mail has just come in and I have a letter from Reg. This week's Express has arrived too. The weather is fine. The places we've been in have been nice pleasant places in summer.

I hope you are all well and that everything is going well.

Your affectionate son
Lewis.
